

When Seconds Count

Instructor's Guide

Acknowledgements for When Seconds Count program

Authors

Lynn Doyle, RN, MS, CPNP

Joan Totka, RN, MSN

Contributors

Special thanks to the following health care professionals for their help in developing this program:

- Janice Brandos, RN
- David Brousseau, MD
- Michelle Czarnecki, RN-C, MSN, CPNP
- Karen Gralton, MS, APRN, BC
- Norah Johnson, RN, MSN, CPNP
- Doran Kemp, FF/PLt
- Olivia Kim, MD
- Carol Klingbeil, RN, MS, CPNP
- Linda Kroll, RN, BSN
- Kathy Leack, RN, BSN
- Khris O'Brien, RRT

Layout, editing, and design

Brian Herten, MBA

No part of this publication may be reproduced, stored in a retrieval system, or transmitted, in any form or by any means, electronic, mechanical, photocopy, recording, or otherwise, without prior written permission from the publisher.

Printed in the United States of America.

Published and distributed by maxiSHARE.

© 2007 Children's Hospital and Health System. All rights reserved.

Contents

Overview

What is When Seconds Count?	6
Who is it for?	6
What are the goals?	6
What materials are available?	7
Tips for using program materials successfully	9

Conducting a class

Sample agendas for large group training	12
Tips for preparation	12
Skills scenarios	13
Airway and breathing scenario 1 (Jenna).....	14
Airway and breathing scenario 2 (Ethan)	16
Circulation scenario (Jessica)	19
Disability/Exposure scenario (Nicholas).....	21
Exposure scenario 1 (Molly)	24
Exposure scenario 2 (Molly later)	26

Post-test

Appendix A: Just in time learning sheets

Bibliography